

Key Words

Allah - The Arabic word for God.

Archbishop - the chief bishop responsible for a large district

Archbishop of York - The Archbishop of York is a senior bishop in the Church of England, second only to the archbishop of Canterbury.

Bhagavad Gita - One of the most popular extracts from the Hindu scriptures

Burial - the action or practice of burying, to bury

Charity - a group of people who come together to help others

Consent - give permission

Consultation - having a discussion with people before making a decision

Crematorium - a purpose-built crematorium building, crematorium

Dharma - Duty in Hinduism

Disposal - To get rid of

Donor List - list of people who gave consent for organ donation before 1 December 2015

Enable - helping someone do something

Imam - Islamic leader in mosque

Judgment Day - The belief in Islam that everyone will be resurrected on a special day to face the judgment of Allah. Those who have been faithful to him will be allowed to go to Paradise and those who will not go to Hell, Doomsday

Karma Act - Act of cause and effect

Kidneys - The kidneys are two bean-shaped organs, each about the size of a fist. They are located just below the rib cage, one on each side of your spine

Liver - blood purifying organ

Moksha - The goal of Hinduism is to break the cycle of rebirth to allow the soul to revert to Brahman - the great soul

Muslim - One who follows the religion of Islam.

Opt In - making a choice to be included

Opt out - make a choice not to be included

Organs - a part of the body that plays a key role

Presumed consent - assume you agree unless you have said otherwise

Precious - costing a lot of money or is important to a person

Protect - make something safe, to safeguard

Protestants and Catholics - The two major traditions within Christianity

Provide - give a person what they need

Public - people in general

Qur'an - The holy book of the religion of Islam.

Reincarnation - The belief in Hinduism that the soul after the dead body moves on to another body reincarnation

Resources - things that are available to do things

Shariah Law - The religious law of Islam

Soul - The spiritual part of a person

Stated consent - making a clear statement, presumed consent

The Pope - The worldwide leader of the Catholic Church. It has its headquarters in the Vatican in Rome

Transplant - using organs from one body and putting them into another body to improve or save life

Vedas - Hinduism's holy books