

Key Words

5Ks - five rules kept by conscientious Sikhs.

Buddhism - a religion that follows the Buddha's teachings.

Charity - helping people in need.

Combined - when combined, two things come together.

Commentators - people who describe what happens in a game on the radio / television / Internet.

Crossing - making the sign of the cross.

Discrimination - treating a group of people differently for an unfair reason.

Encouraging - encouraging, trying to get a person to move on to do something.

Equipping - equipping someone with the tools they need to do something.

Extend - reach out to a person or something, extend.

Glorify - Give glory to, say or think how wonderful someone (especially God) is, to magnify, pray, bless.

Kami - a god or gods that the Shinto religion believes to be inside all living things.

Kesh - Sikh practice of not cutting hair or shaving.

Matsuri - a spiritual holiday in Japan.

Multimedia - uses different communication methods e.g. pictures / movies / words / sound.

National anthems - a song that sums up a nation's identity.

Prejudice - judging people in advance without sufficient reason, e.g. on the basis of colour or religion.

Rite - a ceremony that is constantly followed.

Romans - the Apostle Paul wrote many letters to the early Christian churches. The letters explained things about God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, and tried to help the first Christians to live as followers of Jesus. He wrote a letter to the church that was meeting in Rome. The letter is in the New Testament of the Bible.

Sanctuary - a sacred place of worship.

Shinto - Japan's original religion.

Sujood - the movement of bending before Allah in prayer.

Temple - a sacred place of worship.

The Webb-Ellis Cup - the name of the rugby world cup, named after William Webb-Ellis.

Worship - honouring or glorifying, respecting, bending (before) God / Jesus; attending a religious service.