

Key Words

A multicultural country - a country that recognises that there is a place for multiple cultures and lifestyles.

Alpha - a course that helps people who know very little about the Bible and the Christian faith to learn the basics like for example, why should I read the Bible? What is the Holy Spirit? People usually meet for a meal together before watching a video that explains the faith in a simple and lively way and having a discussion. The course lasts for several weeks. The course is available in Welsh and there is a special version for Young People.

Benefits - payments made to people when they are facing financial difficulties in life.

Busy - lively, full of life.

Census - A 10-yearly British population survey. The next will be 2021.

Cheder - basic lessons in Judaism and the Hebrew language.

Contemporary - something that belongs to today, not the past.

Gurdwara - The Sikh temple at the centre of the Sikh community

Guru Angad Dev - The second of the Ten Guru.

Guru Granth Sahib - The main scripture of Sikhism. He is regarded as the final and eternal living Guru.

Guru Nanak - The first Guru and founder of Sikhism.

Kiddush - Jewish celebration of the Sabbath.

Kirat Karo - One of the Three Pillars of Sikhism. It means pursuing an honest living for the benefit of the individual, the family, and the community.

Kosher - what is suitable for Jews to eat.

Multi-faith country - a country that recognises that there is a place for many faiths and beliefs.

Nagar Kirtan - a Sikh ritual that involves marching through the community singing hymns.

Naam Japo - The Last of the Three Pillars. It means reflecting on the name of God.

Orthodox Jews - one tradition within the Jewish religion that adheres to all the traditional rules of the faith.

Practical - useful, actions not just words.

Punjab - The area in Northern India that Sikhs claim as their homeland.

Realisation - making something become a reality. To fulfil, to realise, to make it happen.

Reformed Jews - a tradition within the Jewish religion that is more willing to adapt and change.

SACRE - Standing Advisory Council for Religious Education. The council in each county oversees the provision of Religious Education in the schools of that county.

Sense - a feeling, a taste.

Shabbat - the day of Jewish worship.

Synagogue - a building for Jewish worship.

Traditional - something that has been going on for many years, old-fashioned.

Vand Chakko - The Second of the Three Pillars. It means sharing what you have

Vision - a dream, something a person aspires to.