

Key Words

Ambassador - One who can speak for others

Anglican Church - Church of England and related churches

Chapel house - A house built for people looking after and cleaning a chapel. People were allowed to live for free in the house, but they were expected to do the work

Compassion - Thinking about the need of others and feeling for them - Compassion for others

Cruelty - Causing pain to others unnecessarily

Devolved - Matters discussed and decided by the Welsh Assembly rather than the Westminster - Devolved Parliament

Faith community - A group of people who follow the same spiritual, religious pattern for example Christians, followers of Islam, Judaism, Hinduism

Familiar - Something we are used to or something we know

Flee - Abandon somewhere suddenly in search of safety - to flee

Hijrah - Muhammad's journey from Makkah city to Medina / beginning of the Islamic calendar

Indiscriminate - Impossible to differentiate, we should not treat differently

Islamic State - a fundamentalist group of Sunni Muslims who want to establish an Islamic Republic living according to Sharia law - Sunni Muslim fundamentalists

Jihadists - Those who believe in establishing a global Muslim Community and that violence is one way to achieve this

Kurds - Ethnic group, Muslim, living in parts of Eastern Turkey, Northern Iraq, Western Iran, and Eastern Syria

Non-Violence - Act in a non-violent way

Opposing - Against something, not agreeing with something

Orthodox Church - A Church of a Special Kind

Peaceful - Respond in a way that secures peace and cohabitation

Pennsylvania - The place in America where Quakers fled from Britain - the place in the USA that the Quakers fled to from Britain

Privileged - Satisfied, gets more than the average person gets

Prophet - A person with a religious message to his people

Quakers - A Christian group also known as the 'Society of Friends'

Refuge - Safe place, shelter

Refugees - People who have had to leave their country / area because of problems

Required - Something you need, must have – Necessary

Rights - Being able to make life's normal choices of fairness

Sanctuary - Safe place - Refuge

Spiritual leader - A person who is held in high regard for his religious message

Suffering - Going through a difficult time physically / mentally

Sympathy - Thinking about other people's need and feeling for them

Traumatic - Something that causes shock / pain / suffering

Universal Declaration of Human Rights - A statement prepared by the United Nations in 1948 setting out the fundamental rights that every person in the world should have - Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Volunteering - Offer yourself to do work without expecting payment or salary

Welsh Assembly - 60 body elected members to make decisions on devolved matters - National Assembly of Wales

William Penn - Quaker Founder - Founder of the Quakers

Yazidis - Kurdish community in northern Iraq following ancient religion